Shallum Asher Xavier represented Pakistan in Norway in 2008 and again 2011.

The 2011 month long tour was coordinated by Shallum's Point One Three Productions and Ingrid Kindem of Concerts Norway (Rikskonsertene) . Shallum brought his band Fuzon with him and they made history by becoming the 1st Pakistani band to ever perform with a 64 piece Orchestra.

From the Tour in 2008 "Shallum Xavier, guitar virtuoso of Fuzon fame is making the country proud once again on an international level. He has been invited to perform in Oslo, Norway this week with music and performances that represent the culture of Pakistan. He has composed the score for it himself also using the talents of pro musicians like Ustad Pappu, the flute player of Mekaal Hasan Band fame and even a classically trained dancer Shirimi Dharmarutanam from India. This will be his first solo project of this kind and will feature music and songs made solely by him especially for this show"

Shallum has a vast and extensive career includes collaborating with world renown artists , he has also contributed to many soundtracks including his guitar work on Strings last two albums Durr and Dhani , Najam Sheraz with his Album Jaisay Chaho Jiyo , Zeb and Haniya with their debut album Chup, a twelve minute piece was arranged and composed for Yousuf Bashir Qureshi 's fashion show and the band Fryd in Norway to list just a few.

Spreading Peace and Understanding Through Music

Shallum Asher Xavier is a huge believer of the universal language of Music to unite and bond the world through Music, Music allows us all to focus on our Similarities not our Differences.

Shallum Asher Xavier with Fuzon performed with Ari Roland Jazz Quartet from USA.

The collaboration took place in late 2011, the idea was initiated and supported by the USA Embassy in Pakistan, the performances in Pakistan generated numerous goodwill and was covered in the National Press in both countries and on CNN International News.
